MEMORANDUM FOR: The Chief, Central Planning Staff

SUBJECT: Development of Intelligence on U.S.S.R.

REFERENCE: C.I.G. Directive No. 9

1. C.I.G. Directive No. 9 provides that the Director of Central Intelligence furnish a coordinator on the Planning Committee. It further provides that "In case of disagreement within the Planning Committee, the matter will be submitted by the coordinator to the Director of Central Intelligence for decision."

2. It is my desire that the C.I.G. coordinator on the Planning Committee be selected by you from the personnel of the Central Planning Staff.

3. This coordinator is hereby authorized, subject to your direction, to act for me, when practicable, in deciding matters upon which the Planning Committee disagrees, except in matters of major policy. The coordinator will submit to you any case of disagreement which he is not empowered to decide. You will then submit to me a report of the matter, with your comments and recommendations.
